DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 11, 20, 21, 24, and 25 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shuttleworth et al (6,780,097). Shuttleworth et al discloses a vehicle roof structure for a cabin of a work vehicle and includes a roof unit (10) which is downwardly bulging, and is the forward region of the cabin (SEE Figures 1 & 4), a heater (26B), an evaporator (26A) arranged adjacent rearwardly of the heater (SEE Figure 4), a pair (12 & 14) of forward air-supply openings provided in the ceiling portion and disposed near the heater and is on either side of the heater allowing conditioned air to be fed into the cabin, the roof unit includes a lateral air supply opening (36) which is part of the partition wall structure (36, 40) and is in contact relationship with the heater by way of elements (58, 60), Shuttleworth et al furthermore includes an eave portion (SEE Figure 1, characterized by elements 52 & 54) which encloses a window portion (66).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 3 and 23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 4-10, 12-14, 16-19, and 22 are allowed.
